Morning Session

Conflict is Not a Bad Word

Conflict is inevitable. When people work together, they bring differing perspectives, opinions and motives that can lead to conflict. This training will recognize that conflict isn't always bad. In fact, many conflicts - when handled properly - can create an atmosphere of creativity and innovation. Most importantly, know that conflict management skills can be learned. While natural ability is helpful, we know these skills can be effectively developed and improved.

Afternoon Session

Leading with Agility

To be a high performer and increase your long-term potential, you need a way to deal with the unknown - and fast. Fortunately, it's never too soon (or too late) to increase your learning agility. Learning agility is about knowing how to learn - knowing what to do when you don't know what to do. It's about learning from experience and applying it in new ways, adapting to new circumstances and opportunities.
