AED/CPR
Dale Wakasugi, Founder of My AED & CPR Solutions

The "Anyone Can Save a Life" is a program designed to empower on-site personnel to be a part of a coordinated response and learn about "Operations Save Heart's" goal to put outdoor AED stations at fields, pools, and complexes

Officials Panel
Where have all the officials gone? What needs to be done to recruit and retain officials to work together and collaborate on a uniform approach to better address the official's shortage in all sports.

Are the Kids ok? Am I ok?

The subject of mental health has become much more evident since the pandemic. Discover how YouthLink, a local nonprofit in Minnesota is supporting the cause and the mental and physical health resources available using the nine wellness wheel categories: family, health & nutrition, social connectedness, emotional health, intellectual, employment readiness, spiritual, and living standards.

Creating Inclusive Programming for Trans and Gender Nonconforming Folks

What comprehensive gender inclusion policies are needed that will cover built space, programming access, and workforce policies while addressing ways in which this work aligns with and supports racial equity and disability justice and legal implications.
